MEDIA ADVISORY

RIGOLO CAFÉ SALUTES U.S. SOLDIERS WITH FREE MEAL DURING CHRISTMAS WEEK

WHAT: Active soldiers in the U.S. military who are home for the holidays are invited to Rigolo Café in San Francisco for a complimentary meal* between December 20th and December 31st.

WHY: The entire team at Rigolo Café, a popular restaurant in Laurel Village, would like to extend their appreciation for the effort and sacrifice of the U.S. military.

Rigolo Owner Douglas Mathieux says: "It's the holidays and I think we can all somehow do our part to show the men and women of our military that we are thinking about them and that we stand behind them. If they are able to come in to Rigolo, sit down, relax, and enjoy a nice fresh-cooked dish on the house, then I can't really ask for more this holiday season."

TV VIDEO & PRINT OPPORTUNITY: Mathieux is available for an interview on this topic, and we can also offer a member of the U.S. military to discuss this feel-good, holiday promotion.

About Rigolo Café

Rigolo is a modern, whimsical French-style bistro located in Laurel Village in San Francisco. Serving a consistently excellent all-day menu of French and California fare, Rigolo caters to a casual, discerning and family-friendly crowd. More info at www.rigolocafe.com. Please contact Laura Mathieux for interviews at 650.201.0542 or laura@rigolocafe.com.

Promotion Policy: Must show valid military ID and be currently active. Promotion is good for a one-time visit and offered only to the individual soldier. Offer includes a complementary entrée only. Does not include beverages.*
